Owen is looking to spend a quiet night at home when his best friend, Derick, shows up at his apartment, needing help to land a promotion to partner at the hedge fund he works for. Owen obviously wants to help, but there is a catch. To help, Owen must take a new drug called Bimbacic to pose as Derick's ex-girlfriend at a work party.As strange as it seems, Owen agrees to Derick's plea for help, especially after Derick offers to buy Owen a car, something Owen badly needs. So well in fact, that Owen finds himself agreeing to use Bimbacic again, first to go on a date with Michelle, who will only date him as Celeste, and then on a company retreat with Derick to solidify his position as partner at the hedge fund.However, Owen soon comes to realize he might be in trouble. With each passing day, he finds Celeste changing, becoming more and more of a bimbo. That does not seem so bad, until he learns that continued and prolonged use of Bimbacic can cause a permanent transformation. And that choice comes to a head when his life seems to all come crashing down around him. What will Owen choose? It could be either! Everyone knows about Egbert Ray Smith and how dangerous he is. Every pack avoids him, and the U.S. military uses him as their own killing machine. And Darla is just a nice girl who likes to bake and occasionally follow the Grateful Dead around. She doesn't have time for this sort of foolishness. And yet . . . there is something about Eggie Ray. He just doesn't seem as bad as everyone says. In fact, the more she gets to know him, the cuddlier he seems. Something her overprotective family is not going to be happy to hear . . .
