Risks are always worth taking. Cocky Kelton Maxwell is an impossibly sexy and charming college playboy who 's set on attending Harvard Law. He has no interest in the trappings of romance. He only needs a prestigious internship at a highfalutin law firm to seal his application. But when a blast from his past shows up in Boston, his future is jeopardized. Kelton swore he would never put himself through heartache again. He would rather pledge his allegiance to the devil than drop to his knees to worship a woman, especially her. Feisty Lizzie Reardon is on a mission to find the man who stole her inheritance. Her only lead sends her to an art class, where she finds the boy she left standing on the hot Texas pavement several years ago. She isn 't prepared to deal with Kelton, and she definitely isn 't ready to see him posing naked for a room full of students. Yet she can 't help but admire the boy who is now all man, hard, cut, and covered with colorful tattoos. Kelton won 't dare to get close. Lizzie won 't dare to let him in. Can they both dare to love?
