The first phase of the audit is client acceptance. ISA 200 gives the objective and general principles of an audit of financial statements. ISA 210 describes the contents of an engagement letter. Although the standard does not require use of an engagement letter, the guidance is provided in a manner that presumes use of an engagement letter.

In this fourth edition the authors continue to provide a refreshing, imaginative and thorough introduction to the audit process, with a rational and coherent foundation for the appreciation of auditing practice. This Revised ISA edition is entirely up to date with changes post-Enron, with new international auditing standards and IFRS replacing UK accounting standards for the first time. With the aid of numerous examples, case studies and questions, The Audit Process: Principles, Practice and Cases provides a realistic and thought-provoking insight into the individual components of the auditing process in the context of the entire audit.
