This book is divided into five parts and covers: representation; subjectivity; form, structure and system; history and society; morality, class and ideology. Each part contains several thematic sections in which extracts from different writers and periods are juxtaposed. The study of literary theory has tended to concentrate on very recent developments. This volume, however, establishes both a sense of the continuities from Plato to the present day as well as the discontinuities. These are presented through comparisons and contrasts across the entire field of critical history.

Based on Gabriela Pereira's popular website and course, DIY MFA advocates "knowledge without the college" by providing tools and techniques for serious writers. It combines the three main elements of a traditional Masters in Fine Arts--writing, reading, and community--in one easy-to-access, portable book.

ABOUT THE BOOK This book is designed to meet the requirements of the students of literature to deal the literary world. It has been written according to prescribed syllabi of all major Indian Universities. It will be very helpful for those students who are going to appear in the competitive examination like NET, SLET etc. The book has been specially designed to provide a platform for the critical and creative literary and linguistic studies, as literature in its varying forms serves the purpose of a mirror in the society. After all literature is a basic tool of communication, which tells us about each and every aspect of community and country. Just to fulfill the need of the hour i.e to bridge the gap between different cultures we have provided a common platform through this book. We are confident that this book will guide you to make you success and come up-to your expectations.
